

Reconstructing Dark Energy With Most Recent Cosmology Data

Arman Shafieloo
(KASI, South Korea)

Reconstructing the expansion history of the universe and properties of dark energy have been among of the main goals of physical cosmology. I will discuss about reconstructing dark energy in light of most recent cosmological observations including DESI-2024 BAO observations, Union3 supernova compilation and Planck CMB data.